2 Sometimes a hen will produce double-yoked eggs. It is rare, but not unusual, for a young hen to produce an egg with no yolk at all. 	3 Pepperoni is America's favorite pizza topping. Anchovies always rank last on the list of favorite toppings. In Japan, squid is the number one pizza topping! 	4 One acre of soybeans can produce 82,368 crayons. Soy crayons were created in place of wax crayons because they are brighter in color, and less expensive to make.	5 The top 10 most recognized Food Characters by Pillsbury are: Doughboy, 7-Up Spot, California Raisins, M&M Characters, Tony the Tiger, Trix Rabbit, Nestle Quick Bunny, Ronald McDonald, Chester Cheetah, and Elsie the Borden Milk Cow.	6 Chop suey is not a Chinese dish, but was invented in America by Chinese cooks. The name chop suey means "odds and ends" and first appeared in print in 1888.
9 Drink water and milk most often. When you are really thirsty, cold water is the number 1 thirst-quencher. And, there is a reason your school cafeteria offers milk. Kids need calcium to grow strong bones, and milk is a great source of this mineral.	10 Abe Lincoln's mother died when the family dairy cow ate poisonous mushrooms and Mrs. Lincoln drank the milk. 	11 Try to taste new foods and old ones you have not tried for a while. Some foods, like green veggies, taste better the older you get. Shoot for five servings of fruits and vegetables a day - 2 fruit and 3 vegetables.	12 The dye used to stamp the grade on meats is actually edible. It is made from grape skins.	13 The sandwich is named for the Fourth Earl of Sandwich in the 1700's, for which sandwiches were made so that he could stay at the card table without interruption for meals.
16 President's Day 	17 Washington State grows the most apples than anywhere else in the United States. Fresh apples float because 25% of their volume is air. 	18 A cow has 4 stomachs - one to store food, one for food more thoroughly chewed, one where extra water is squeezed out and then the one where the remaining food goes. Some of the digested food is then stored in the cows udder where it is made into milk.	19 A hive of bees flies over 55,000 miles to bring you one pound of honey. They must tap two million flowers to make that one pound of honey. Each worker bee makes 1/12th of a teaspoon of honey in its lifetime.	20 Why does cutting onions make you cry? When you cut into an onion, a powerful acid sprays up into the air. The acid causes your eyes to sting and begin to tear up until they have gotten rid of the irritation
23	24 In a Chinese meal, the last course is always soup. This is because they used to believe it allowed the meal to "swim" towards digestion.	25 Pound cake got its name because of the pound of butter that it contained. 	26 In Russia, they serve pizza covered with mockba, which is a combination of sardines, tuna, mackerel, salmon, and onions. In France, a popular combo is called the Flambee, with bacon, onion, and fresh cream.	27 Rice is a healthy food and is very abundant throughout the world. Rice is the staple food for more than 1/2 of the world's population.
